Principal's Report, Frank Samuelson

- The school year is half way over with midterms beginning next week, if there is a delay the exam will be held the same day, if there is a snow day all exams are pushed off by one day.
- Winter Athletics is well underway, Cheerleading Competition this Saturday.
- Power-school is proofing to be more user friendly for parents and students.
- PSAT Night is being held for Junior.
- Winter Concert is this evening.
- The Senior Project "Capstone" is receiving a lot of attention.

Vice Principal/Athletic Director, Glen Lungarini

- Winter Sport was underway and teams are doing well.
- Fundraiser "Chopped at Oxford" is a take off of the Iron Chef $10 entry fee should be a great event.

President, Kathy Weisgable

Jamie Cohen from Greater New Haven Foundation will made a presentation to the Booster Club February 3rd at 6:00 p.m. anyone interested in information regarding scholarship option can attend this meeting.

Mike from Mike's Enterprise has contacted me, there was a miscommunication regarding the cheerleading competition scheduled for this Saturday. Because Mike will not be involved in this event he will not be able to comp the Booster Club for bounces for Oxford Day, we will need to consider that during the budget process.

New Business

Ms. Malhinak, a Master Gardener, presented a request to the Booster Club to consider a "Clean Up Day" at the high school. Minor funding would be needed for mulch and many hands would make for light work. Consider YCC Kids as well as all high school students who need volunteer hours. Ms. Malhinak, who is willing to head up the project, will put together a proposal of what is needed and dates for the event. Ms. Weisgale will look into any possible grants available for such a project.

Jim Zeppo an Oxford Resident and Seymour Business owner has 52 weeks of advertising in the Valley Shopper, he has offer the high school 4 weeks to promote whatever events we wish. At this point the production of "Grease" and the 3rd annual "Oxford Day" are on the schedule to be published.

Old Business

Post Prom – Decoration are underway, the committee is meeting Mondays and Thursdays all are welcome. Donations for raffle prizes are in place and grants are being written.

Graduation Events – “Oxford Grad” signs are being researched as a fundraiser and exciting way to celebrate the “Class of 2010” Ms. Duclos will draft a letter requesting senior parents/guardians to submit children’s photos for “Grad Week” and the letter will also request information regarding the child’s future plans of study. School Pennants will be posted throughout the school for “Grad Week:

Oxford Day- Entertainment for the event will be free this year the plan is to invite the groups from “Battle of the Bands”. The staging area will be moved to the end of the field. A separate meeting will be scheduled to consider a Car Raffle rather than a Cow Chip Raffle this year.

With no other business to come before the Booster Club Mr. Samuelson made a motion to adjourn the meeting. Mr. Lungarini seconded the motion. The motion was approved. (All in favor)

The meeting was adjourned at 7:00 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,

Donna Duclos
Secretary
