Kathy Weisgable, President

Ms. Weisgable urged all groups to use electronic communication (email) as much as possible rather than mailings. All communication can also be forwarded to Ms. Cairo and it will be place on the Booster Club Web Site.

The 2009-2010 Meeting Schedule was discussed and the 2nd Wednesday of each month at 6:00 p.m. was the general consensus. There will not be a July meeting.

Volunteers will be needed for the Freshman Orientation anyone available to help should contact Ms. Weisgable.

An inquiry has been made asking why families should consider joining the Oxford High School Booster Club. The annual membership is $10 and those funds aid in funding a number of activities. IE.

- Funding academic programs brought into the High School, which are not in the current operating budget.
- Funding scholarships for graduating seniors.
- Annual Insurance paid by the Booster Club, covers all participating in any fundraising activity.
- Oxford Day
- Post Prom

Frank Samuelson, Principal's Report

The end of the school year is going well, exams are underway the last day being the 19th, and Monday is the official last day of school. Oxford Day was another great success thank you to all who predicated. The summer reading program is kicked off with the entire school reading the same book. The Westside Field is coming along nicely and should be complete with fencing by early July. The last teacher were hired and a final decision is be made for the Director of Guidance.
